

What Can I Do with a Bachelor Degree in Jazz Commercial Music with a Concentration in

Audio Recording

Audio Format Conversion Specialist	Conversion of old media (8 track or record) to New Media (CD or Data)
Background Vocalist	Sing supporting vocals to promote a richer sound for a band or leading solo artist
Composer	Write or author pieces of music
Consumer Audio	Consumer Audio Equipment sales
High End Home Audio	Installation, maintenance of high end home theatre gear
Law Enforcement Audio	Police Department Forensic Audio Engineer, Wire Tapping etc.
Live Sound Engineer	Engineer specializing in live audio mixing
Musician/Singer	Professional vocalist or musician of a particular musical instrument
Performing Artist	Perform as a vocalist professionally for large audiences, tour and performing, record and release albums for purchase, etc.
Pro Audio	Employment at manufacturers such as Korg or Samson
Production Assistant	Assistant to production crew
Session Musician	Hired by a producer or another musician to play a particular instrument for a specific recording or period of time
Studio Engineer	Engineer specializing in recording in a studio environment
Studio Engineer (Film/Post)	Engineer specializing in areas of Post Production such as Dialog replacement or sound effects, etc.
Studio Engineer (Mastering)	Engineer specializing in Mastering final mixes
Wedding/Party Band Musician	Sing or play and instrument in a band that performs for parties, weddings, or special events