

What Can I Do With a Bachelor Degree in Business Management

Advertising Manager	Develop, implement, and manage a company's advertising strategy, from a business, sales, and technical perspective by initiating and managing discussion and sales with sponsor and agencies
Banking	Operate all responsibilities within a banking environment such as a teller, financial advisor, or loan specialist
Business Manager	Handle all negotiations and financial responsibilities for signed artists or a small or large business
Claims Representative	Investigate claims for an insurance company to determine coverage, liability and then negotiate fair settlements
Food Service Manager	Responsible for daily operations of restaurants/other establishments that prepare and serve meals/beverages ensuring that customers are satisfied with their dining experience
General Management	Manage or assist with the management of any crew, department, or small business
Human Resource Manager	Handle personnel decisions, including hiring, position assignment, training, benefits, and compensation for a large company
International Business	Acquire meaningful share of a company's resources and or revenues from countries outside of the parent location
Investment Counselor	Assist clients with how to invest their money to best suite their own personal lifestyle
Marketing Representative	Understand clients' marketing objectives and require information that allows you to make appropriate placement recommendations
Office Manager	Perform administrative tasks to ensure that an office operates efficiently
Retail Management	Handle higher level responsibilities in a retail store setting such as customer service, recovery, logistics, or managerial
Sales Representative	Interest wholesale and retail buyers and purchasing agents in merchandise and address clients' questions and concerns
Service Representative (Customer or Financial)	Ensure that a company's customers receive an adequate level of service or help with their questions and concerns