

What Can I Do with a Bachelor Degree in Jazz Commercial Music with a Concentration in

Composition/Songwriting

Arranger	Arrange musical scores for different instruments and keys for performance or instructional purposes
Composer	Write or author pieces of music
Conductor	Direct an orchestra, band, or choir in a large production or performance
Copyist	Make written copies of music and produce parts for individual musicians from an orchestral score or composer's manuscript
Editor (Publishing)	Edit & splice recorded music to piece together for a better composition
Jingle Writer	Hired by advertisers to write short catchy songs for a product or service
Lyricist	Write and or sell song lyrics for music to be placed to them by a musician
Music Teacher	Become an educator of music in a shop, privately, or in a school music program setting
Orchestrator	Compose or arrange music for performance by an orchestra
Performing Songwriter	Write and perform songs you wrote yourself for a variety of audiences
Producer	Help provide guidance to an artist during the recording process in a studio atmosphere
Songwriter (Staff/Freelance)	Write and compose songs for a musician, company, or for yourself to be put out and sold at your own leisure
Stage Musicals/Librettist	Perform in the orchestral arrangement that plays the accompanying musical score for a musical theatre production or an opera
Theme Specialist	Hired by film or television producers to write short catchy songs for the introduction to a television program or feature film
Transcriber	Adapt or arrange a musical composition for a voice or instrument other than the original