Forward official transcripts of all previous college work, both undergraduate and graduate, to the Graduate Admissions Office. A final transcript from a four-year college or university showing that a baccalaureate degree has been awarded must be received together with two letters of recommendation before the applicant can be accepted as a candidate for a masters degree. An appropriate masters degree is required for admission to doctoral study, as well as three letters of recommendation. Additional Information forms will be mailed to applicants for doctoral study after receipt of official transcripts.

PERSONAL STATEMENT

Please provide a personal statement regarding your goals, values or accomplishments. Briefly describe any distinctions or honors you have achieved. You may also submit an audition video and/or audio tape, which reflects your talents and abilities (tapes will not be returned). If you need more space, you may attach additional pages or email to admissions@ftc.edu.
