

With a Concentration in

Composition Songwriting

Job Title

Composer/Arranger

Composition Teacher

Conductor

Film Score Composer

Film Orchestrator

Music Editor

Jingle Writer

Lyricist

Music Professor

Orchestrator

Performing Songwriter

Producer

Songwriter

Transcriber

Description

Arrange or compose musical scores for bands, choral groups, individual instrumentalists or vocalists, orchestra, and video games.

Teach composition in your own private studio.

Direct various ensembles for concert settings or musical theater.

Compose music for independent filmmakers or for a major studio.

Arrange a film score for orchestral performance or for studio production.

Select, mix, and balance music to enhance movies or music videos.

Write short catchy songs to advertise products or services.

Interpret the style, tone, and mood of a piece of music to provide words to match.

Continue your education to teach music and composition at the college level.

Compose or arrange music for performance by an orchestra.

Write and perform original materials in a variety of styles for various venues.

Provides guidance to artists during the recording process in a studio.

Write and compose songs for musicians, bands, record labels and corporate accounts.

Adapt or arrange a musical composition for a voice or instrument other than the original setting.