

ARTICULATION AGREEMENT
by and between
Community College of Rhode Island and Five Towns College

December 1, 2019 to November 30, 2023

WHEREAS, an articulation agreement by and between Community College of Rhode Island hereinafter CCRI) and Five Towns College (hereinafter The College) that further enhances the education opportunities available for their students is beneficial; and

WHEREAS, both CCRI and The College seek to provide students with the best preparation for success in their chosen vocations by, among other things, facilitating the transition to a bachelor's level program of study when appropriate, and

WHEREAS, both CCRI and The College seek to establish an articulation agreement for the benefit of students enrolled, who seek to pursue a course of student learning leading to an appropriate degree from The College.

NOW THEREFORE, it is agreed as follows:

This agreement shall commence as the date hereof, and shall remain in effect until December 31, 2023.

The College shall be responsible for:

- Periodic curricula review of the articulated courses given at CCRI to ensure that they meet the approved requirements for courses offered at The College;
- Providing a dedicated transfer admissions representative for graduates of CCRI;
- Scheduling at least two (2) on-site admissions events per academic year;
- Waiving the application fee for all graduates of CCRI;
- Providing prospective students counseling and advisement about this agreement and its inherent benefits;
- Communicating changes to those parties at The College to whom the information is pertinent;
- Awarding transfer credit for courses in which a student has received a grade of C or higher;
- Exempting students who complete their degrees at CCRI from any entrance examinations except in cases where a program-specific examination is required, as outlined below; and
- Awarding institutional scholarships as well as departmental scholarships as outlined in Schedule B.

CCRI shall be responsible for:

- Periodic curricula review of the articulated courses given at CCRI to ensure that they meet the approved requirements for courses offered at The College;
- Informing The College of changes to existing programs or the addition of new programs;
- Communicating changes to those parties at CCRI to whom the information is pertinent;
- Providing prospective students counseling and advisement about this agreement and its inherent benefits; and
- Promoting The College in any publications and/or websites that discuss transfer options and agreements; and
- Distributing and making available any appropriate Five Towns College printed materials.

In order for any CCRI student to be matriculated into a College program and receive the benefits of this Articulation Agreement at The College, the student must:

- Graduate from an approved CCRI program as detailed in this agreement;
- Complete any program-specific matriculation requirements as detailed below;
- Complete the courses as detailed in this agreement;
- Earn a grade of C or better in the course; and
- Provide official CCRI transcripts to The College.
